Schedule "A"

1. The EfficiencyOne ("EOne") will provide Designated Confidential Information, as defined herein, to the Designated Recipients as defined below.
2. Designated Confidential Information shall consist of material, whether printed or electronic, which has been designated by the EOne as confidential information, including proprietary information received from consultants of EOne, and other commercially sensitive information. This includes information which has been filed with the Nova Scotia Energy Board (the "Board") in confidence on the date of filing the Application for approval of the 2026 DSM Extension and any further material that may be filed with the Board in confidence whether in response to future Information Requests or otherwise, and whether printed or electronic. In particular, without limiting the foregoing, the redacted portions of the following are deemed to be Designated Confidential Information:
 - (a) Attachment "A" to EOne's Response to Synapse IR 35, filed June 25, 2025, Professional Services and Data Transfer Agreement between EfficiencyOne and Nova Scotia Power Inc. dated November 15, 2022

Designated Confidential Information shall also include any explanation or other information provided by EOne to a Designated Recipient concerning the foregoing and which has been identified by EOne as confidential at the time it is initially provided, whether printed or electronic. Designated Confidential Information shall also include any password or other information necessary to access electronic copies of Designated Confidential Information.

3. Access to Designated Confidential Information shall be restricted to the party who has signed the undertaking to which this schedule is attached, that party's counsel and/or consultant who shall each be considered a Designated Recipient.
4. As a condition precedent to receiving Designated Confidential Information, the Designated Recipients shall sign the undertaking to which this schedule is attached.
5. No Designated Confidential Information furnished by EOne shall be given or communicated to persons other than the Designated Recipients. For greater certainty, no Designated Confidential Information shall be provided to the clients of Designated Recipients, to other Intervenor or to employees, officers or members of Intervenor.
6. Where a reference to Designated Confidential Information is required in correspondence with the Board or others, such reference shall be by citation of title or exhibit number only or by some other non-confidential description which protects the confidentiality of the information. In such circumstances, counsel and other designated persons shall make every reasonable effort to preserve the confidentiality of the information provided by EOne.
7. Where an Intervenor files testimony which contains Designated Confidential Information, the testimony must be filed on a confidential basis and the Designated Confidential
