

NOVA SCOTIA ENERGY BOARD

IN THE MATTER OF: The Public Utilities Act, RSNS 1989, c 380, as amended

– and –

IN THE MATTER OF: An Application by EfficiencyOne for approval of a new Benefit-Cost Analysis test for evaluating demand-side management (“DSM”) plans

NOTICE OF INTERVENTION

TO: The Nova Scotia Energy Board (“Board”)

AND TO: EfficiencyOne

1. East Coast Environmental Law Association (2007) (“East Coast Environmental Law”) requests to participate in the above-noted proceeding as an Intervenor.
2. East Coast Environmental Law is a not-for-profit organization that provides public-interest environmental law services throughout Atlantic Canada. Its mission includes: advocating for environmental laws and policies that support environmental protection and promote environmental and climate justice; providing public legal education on environmental laws and policies; and, supporting communities and other not-for-profit organizations that are advocating for environmental and climate justice. The organization is a registered charity and Nova Scotia society, and it maintains an office in Halifax.
3. East Coast Environmental Law’s interest in this proceeding includes, but is not necessarily limited to, the application of the Board’s legislated mandate to consider how a new Benefit-Cost Analysis test for EfficiencyOne’s DSM plans would support sustainable development and sustainable prosperity.
4. The issues that East Coast Environmental Law would address in the proceeding might include any or all of the issues established by the Board, and they would include in particular the application of the Board’s legislated mandate to consider how a new Benefit-Cost Analysis test for EfficiencyOne’s DSM plans would support sustainable development and sustainable prosperity.
5. East Coast Environmental Law intends to appear at the hearing should this request be granted.

6. East Coast Environmental Law is represented in this matter by:
