Ms. Wallace,

Your previous email explicitly stated that you were enclosing "a copy of the full contents of Exhibit L-11" for the completeness of my file. Let the record be entirely clear: you have still not provided me with the confidential, protected document (PCON) that Nova Scotia Power uploaded to your secure server.

I have still not been provided with whatever secret file they are using against me. I have absolutely no idea what is in that document because it has been completely hidden from my view.

This is a severe and ongoing violation of procedural fairness. A regulated utility monopoly cannot submit secret, classified evidence to a public regulator to support an unverified $4,530.81 debt balance while actively blocking the consumer from reading it. While this entire balance came from a fraudulent agreement made with a third party without my consent or power of attorney which was admitted to by NSP in writing in your possession both violating my legal rights.

If this hidden document contains the alleged payment contracts, my position remains absolute: I have never once signed a single contract with Nova Scotia Power, nor have I ever received a single document to sign.

Hiding this file from the account holder proves that Nova Scotia Power completely lacks the customer signatures mandated by Regulation 6.5(3). I am demanding that the Board order Nova Scotia Power to immediately release an unredacted copy of that hidden file directly to this open thread where the media is watching, or strike Exhibit L-11 entirely from the record.

Respectfully beyond frustrated,

Dave Lincoln
