Mr. Gogan,

Further to the emails below from NS Power and the Consumer Advocate regarding scheduling constraints during the hearing, could EfficiencyOne please provide its comments on these constraints by the end of the day today.

Regards,
Crystal

Good morning,

Further to Ms. Power's note below, I write to advise that Mr. Love also has a scheduling constraint the week of the hearing. In particular, we understand that he will be unavailable on August 5 between 2:00 to 4:30 pm. It is possible that this will not present any issues during the hearing, but wished to advise the Board and parties in advance.

Thank you.

Good afternoon,

I am writing to request the Board's consideration of a scheduling accommodation for NS Power's expert from The Brattle Group, Ms. Sergici, due to an unforeseen scheduling constraint. Ms. Sergici is only available on August 4, 5, and if necessary, the morning of the 6th.

To accommodate this constraint, I am hoping that Ms. Sergici be permitted to provide her evidence either during the afternoon of Day 2 or first thing on the morning of Day 3 of the hearing. If scheduled on Day 3, Ms. Sergici would be available only until 12:00 pm (noon) at the latest and would be required to conclude her evidence, including cross-examination, by that time.

Thank you for your consideration.
