Re: M12932 TVP Year Four (2024/25) and Year Five (2025/26) Evaluation Reports – IR Responses

Dear Ms. Henwood:

On August 28, 2026, Nova Scotia Power Incorporated (NS Power, Company) received Information Requests (IRs) from Nova Scotia Energy Board (NSEB, Board) staff, the Consumer Advocate (CA), and the Small Business Advocate (SBA) pertaining to the Time-varying Pricing (TVP) Evaluation Reports referenced above. Enclosed are the Company's responses to the IRs.

Request for Confidentiality

Pursuant to Rule 12 of the Board Regulatory Rules, NS Power requests partially confidential treatment of NSEB IR-1 Attachment 1. NS Power's support for its request is provided below in accordance with Rule 12(4).

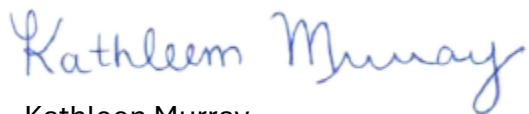

The Company requests that the NSEB accept the above noted IR Attachment as partially confidential. Public disclosure of this information could adversely affect the Company's commercial position in energy and fuel markets. Specifically, external counterparties may be able to analyze the information and infer patterns regarding periods when the company is energy-constrained or expects supply shortfalls.

Based on the justification described above, NS Power requests partially confidential
