Good Morning and thank you very much for this reminder.

I am writing to request that the Board (and all recipients) hold all of the evidence in confidence and consider this as written notice to the Board pursuant to Rule 12.

Understandably transparency is required between the parties to conduct regulatory proceedings however there is a treat of harm that will more likely than not occur, specifically with lowering property value. Especially given a sizeable attraction to this particular property has been its environmentally friendly accommodation status for those living [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. This Enviro status was accomplished alongside and with direct instruction/support of the NS Environmental Clinic and its physicians and support staff. Additionally, the utmost need for privacy is required within my business...clients are often dealing with threatening situations and/or the need for complete privacy in location and with my name as associated. Privacy and confidentiality is requested...

These are the primary and specific harms connected if this matter was to be publicly disclosed. Thank you for your consideration and understanding.

Sincerely,

S L Doward
